

Fourteen days to live!

The very best of Delhi this fortnight

COURTESY DHRUV MALHOTRA/PHOTONK

Dancing in the dark Noida Soliloquy captures the many moods of midnight across the river

Fri May 28
Shankarabharanam

Rukmini Vijayakumar juggles ballet, bharatanatyam and modern dance.
See Dance, page 56.

Sat May 29 Reggae Rajahs
I and I preparin' for roots rhythms and reggae at Café Oz.
See Nightlife, page 74.

Sun May 30 Sharbat making workshop
Make sharbat from scratch with the Genda Phool Project.
See Around Town, page 47.

Mon May 31 The World on a Canvas
A mixed-media visual travelogue by Paresh Maity.
See Art, page 52.

Tue June 1 Noida Soliloquy
Dhruv Malhotra's long-exposure photographs shine a light on nocturnal Noida.
See Art, page 53.

Wed June 2 Aankh Micholi
An adaptation of CP Deshpande's comedy, at the Shri Ram Centre.
See Theatre, page 80.

Thur June 3 Swan Lake
The Royal Ballet Covent Garden perform Tchaikovsky's ballet.
See Music, page 69.

Fri June 4 Paolo Mojo
The British DJ plays the Sunburn Tour at Lap.
See Nightlife, page 71.

Sat June 5 Australian Film Festival
Catch Rolf de Heer's tale of an aboriginal community.
See Film, page 61.

Sun June 6 The Doll from Space
Spanish documentary screening at Lap's Las Ramblas festival.
See Nightlife, page 74.

Mon June 7 Turandot
Giacomo Puccini's grand opera, in a film by Franco Zeffirelli.
See Music, page 69.

Tue June 8 Kafka-Ek Adhyay
Portraits of paranoia and genius.
See Theatre, page 80.

Wed June 9 Tales of Silence
A hush descends on this exhibition of works that meditate on silence.
See Art, page 52.

Thur June 10 Schumann's "The Rhenish"
Schumann's symphony No 3.
See Music, page 69.

If you do only 1 thing...

Time Out advises readers to call venues to confirm availability of tickets.